Maximalism

PRODBYGOURD is a maximalist Producer, DJ, and songwriter whose aesthetics bring life to world of the digital and nostalgic chaos.

THE IDENTITY+STORY:

Navigating a digital matrix of nostalgia and early 2000s computer interfaces, PRODBYGOURD’s maximalist yet danceable beats elicit a carefree and confident response from his listeners.

PRODBYGOURD is much more than an online presence; he blurs the line between the physical and digital. Using imagery of 2000s media and operating systems, PRODBYGOURD creates a metallic, stimulating, and futuristic world that is reminiscent of nostalgic video games such as Undertale.

CHARACTER ARCHETYPES

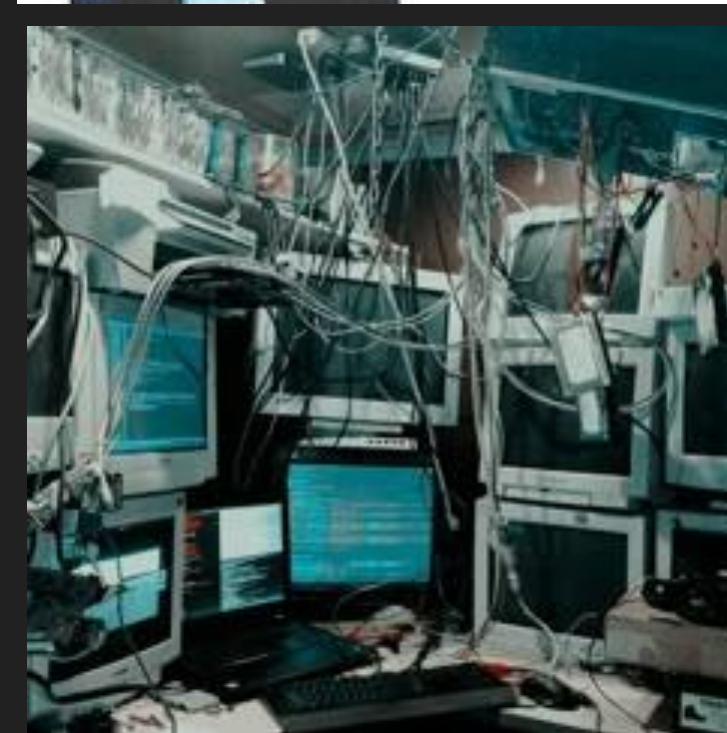

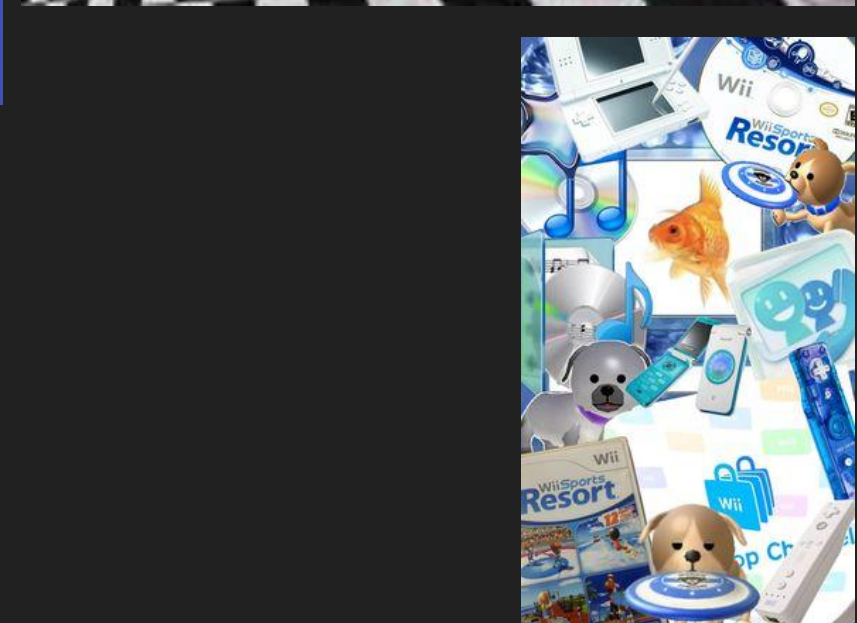

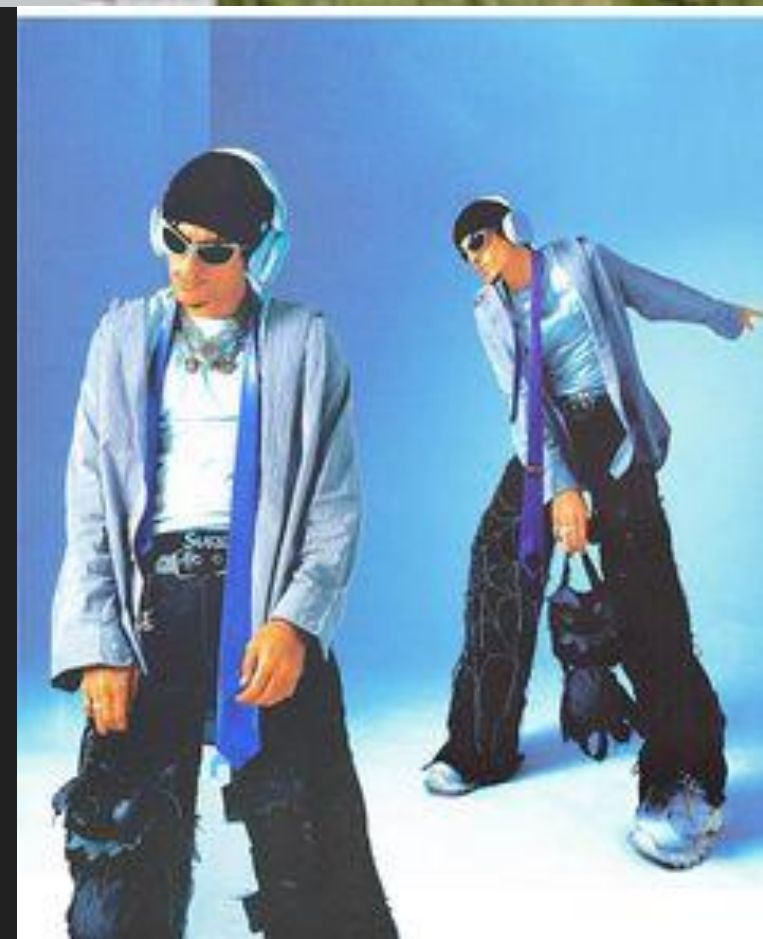

THE CREATOR and THE JESTER

The Creator: PRODBYGOURD embodies the Creator archetype through his consistent innovation in his sound design and visual aesthetics. When you experience PRODBYGOURD, expect the unexpected. Constantly developing new ways of sound designing, experimenting with auditory effects and distorted computerized imagery, PRODBYGOURD's sound is consistently his, but never the same.

The Jester: Through his comical interactions with fans through social media, PRODBYGOURD's fundamental platform was built on unserious and comedic content. PRODBYGOURD is relatable through his video content and through his playful lyricism that creates a carefree and partiful vibe.

CREATIVE GUIDELINES

VISUAL

ART STYLE

This will cover the distinct type of art that your visuals should always be created within.

COLORS + TEXTURES

These colors and textures should always be present in your visual identity.

OBJECTS + SYMBOLS

Every distinctive artist has some sort of symbol or object that is very distinct in their branding.

TYPEFACES

You'll have 2 fonts that cover titles and paragraph. This should be consistent throughout.

SUBLIMINAL

This is very important. You want to have subliminal visuals and messages happening throughout your entire visual identity to convey emotion + intent.

ART STYLE

THE VIBE:

An early 2000s maximalist and tactile art style/skeuomorphism. Nods to 2000s Nintendo, Microsoft, Nokia, and SEGA products. All images of PRODBYGOURD should expand on this maximalist world with chaotic collages surrounding.

- Maximalist
- Futuristic Nostalgia
- Digital
- Skeuomorphism

BUT NOT:

- Analog
- Minimalist
- Illustrative
- Simple

COLORS + TEXTURES

THE VIBE:

The colors should be a contrast of light blues, whites, and silvers with darker blues and purples. The textures should be very metallic and tactile. Skeuomorphism is a huge component in the texture.

- Blues and whites
- Metallic
- Tactile
- Sharp

BUT NOT:

- Blurry
- Pastel
- Yellows
- Matte

OBJECTS + SYMBOLS

THE VIBE:

Symbols of 90s-2000s futuristic minimalist technology. Old Nokia phones, Wii controllers, and old Windows PC's as well as other physical media of that era such as CDs or MP3 players.

90s and 2000s
Technology
Digitized Physical media

BUT NOT:

Modern Vintage Wood objects

TYPEFACES

THE VIBE:

8 bit retro fonts will be used. These fonts should be close to Press Start 2P, a Classic 8-bit arcade look based on 1980s Namco games, Minecraftia, clean, blocky text styled after Minecraft, VCR OSD Mono, a monospace font replicating vintage video cassette recorder displays, and Pixel Operator, a clean, highly readable small pixel font for retro UIs.

SUBLIMINAL

THE VIBE:

Metallic Maximalist and tactile visuals: Representing PRODBYGOURD's maximalist and overstimulating sound. The theme of PRODBYGOURD is to "break through the noise of life and dance to the music." The maximalism surrounding him and his sound represents this breakthrough.

Cool and silver tones: Evoking a sense of futuristic nostalgia in reference to the art pieces and technology that inspired PRODBYGOURD to experiment with technology and sound.

Skeuomorphism: Digitally added symbols and objects should look like they are tactile objects to add to the early 2000s nostalgic vibe.,
